

Academic Integrity Pledge

I PLEDGE

As a student of this University:

- I will be honest in my academic endeavors.
- I will not represent someone else's work as my own.
- I will not cheat, nor will I aid in another's cheating.

All students are deemed by the University to understand that if they are found responsible for academic misconduct, they will be subject to the Academic Misconduct procedures and sanctions, as outlined in the Student Handbook. Students are on notice of this code and its provision by virtue of enrollment at Florida International University. Copies are distributed to students at all orientation services and are available online.

Academic misconduct is defined as the following intentional acts or omissions committed by and FIU student:

Cheating:

- The unauthorized use of books, notes, aids, electronic sources
- The unauthorized use of online exams, library materials, or assistance from another person with respect to examinations, course assignments, field service reports, class recitations
- The unauthorized possession examination papers (or online examination) or course materials, whether originally authorized or not

Any student helping another cheat may be found guilty of academic misconduct.
