<sup>2</sup> One option would be for the student to be required to enroll in and successfully pass an online ethical development seminar. Register for the seminar by sending an electronic message to garypavela@integrityseminar.org. Be sure to identify your name, university, and that you are a graduate student. Within three business days you will receive detailed instructions and a set of readings (all available online). Many students complete the seminar over one weekend, but we recommend starting the readings immediately. If you encounter any delays please contact the Seminar Coordinator: DeForest McDuff at dfomcduff@gmail.com. You will be charged $100 for the cost of this seminar. Failure to complete this sanction before the last day of the following semester may result in the revocation of this Information Resolution and a hold may be placed on the student's ability to register for subsequent semesters or to change a class schedule. The ethics seminar is modeled on honors courses taught at several leading universities. You will receive personal attention and individualized responses. We believe you will find the seminar to be challenging, interesting, and thought-provoking.
